

ARTS, CULTURE AND A HELPING OF SCENIC BEAUTY.

Against the backdrop of the majestic Columbia River Gorge, lovers of the arts have a home in the city of Stevenson. Downtown is host to several galleries. You'll even find rotating fine art on the wall of the local coffee bar, Bahma.

When it comes to cultural events, Stevenson has them to boot. A trip to our annual blues, folk and bluegrass music festivals is an auditory delight. And Skamania Performing Arts Foundation's (SPAF) "Guest Artist Series" isn't to be missed.

If you have a taste for something more dramatic, the SPAF's annual musical is an excellent choice. The New Director's Series in the fall and in the spring will provide delightful off-season entertainment. Or dust off that bodice and don your best Renaissance attire for the Madrigal Feast.

MAKE TRACKS IN STEVENSON, WA

New to Stevenson? A stroll along the Rock Cove pathway or the Columbia River waterfront is a great way to take in our surroundings. Downtown Stevenson is home to unique shops, art galleries, and restaurants. Not to mention our award-winning local brewpub.

Just up the hill from downtown is the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum. Venture back in time. View the cataclysmic formation of the Gorge and artifacts from Native American tribes and early settlers in the area.

There's no shortage of fun in Stevenson. Head off on your favorite outdoor activity, or try something new. Perhaps just sit at Bob's Beach and watch the kiteboarders' colorful sails, as they catch the winds above the river. Heck, while you're at it, break out the laptop and enjoy Stevenson's free Wi-Fi.
